

POLICE LATERAL ENTRY APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCESS LOUISVILLE METRO POLICE MERIT BOARD

The application and selection process includes many steps designed to fully examine the applicant's abilities and interest in law enforcement. The following information is provided so that you may know exactly what is expected of an applicant.

The recruitment, application, examination and selection process involves the efforts of the Louisville Metro Police Department, the Louisville Metro Police Merit Board and the Human Resources Department of Louisville/Jefferson County Metro Government. The Merit Board is a civilian body created by state law, separate from the Police Department, which conducts the application and examination process (and other employment matters) in such a way that each candidate's merit for selection is fully evaluated. Most (if not all) of your contact will be with the Merit Board's staff, not with the Merit Board members themselves.

APPOINTMENT

- ❑ TRAINING FOR POLICE – LATERAL ENTRY
  - The Louisville Metro Police Training Academy conducts basic law enforcement training for new lateral entry Police Officers of the department. The academy provides a minimum of 360 hours of instruction over at least 9-weeks. Those selected for hire are paid while attending the academy.

The academy is located in Louisville, KY. Lateral entry officers do not live at the training facility. Designed for recruit level officers, the curriculum is segmented into various training areas: law offenses and procedures, patrol operations, traffic stops, investigative procedures, accident investigation, vehicle operations, self-defense, firearms (handgun and shotgun), physical fitness, practical performance exercises, LINK/NCIC, Breath Test and First Aid/CPR.

❑ FIELD TRAINING FOR POLICE – LATERAL ENTRY

- Upon successful completion of the Louisville Metro Police Training Academy, the probationary officer will be assigned to the Field Training Officer program. This program provides a measure of the field performance of probationary officers and is used in the final decision regarding the retention or termination of employment.
- The probationary officer will ride with at least two different Field Training Officers for a period of five (5) weeks. The probationary officer may be assigned to different districts and work shifts. During that time the probationary officer will be evaluated on at least thirty-two (32) different criteria such as appearance, attitude, knowledge of policies, laws, and vehicle codes, performance such as driving skills, report writing, field performance, and communication skills, and relationships such as with peers, supervisors, and the community. Following that time period, and upon the recommendation of the FTOs, the probationary officer may ride solo for a period of forty-seven (47) weeks. At the end of fifty-two (52) weeks, the final decision regarding retention or termination of employment will be made.

NOTE FROM THE STAFF:

The foregoing information is not exhaustive but should provide information on the processes involved in becoming a Louisville Metro Police Officer. The information is not intended to discourage, but rather inform. It requires serious commitment to a law enforcement career to endure the long process.
